Waking Ned

The lucky winner of the national lottery is Ned Devine, so taken by his good fortune that he now can't be waked, because he died from the shock of it! News of the win spread quickly in the scenic little Irish village of Tully More, but not the secret news of Ned's demise. With lottery officials closing in to confirm the prize claimed by the deceased Devine, Ned's closest friends scheme to keep the prize money close to home, in memory of Ned of course! But as the plot twists humorously, they learn it is hard to keep such a secret in a small town.

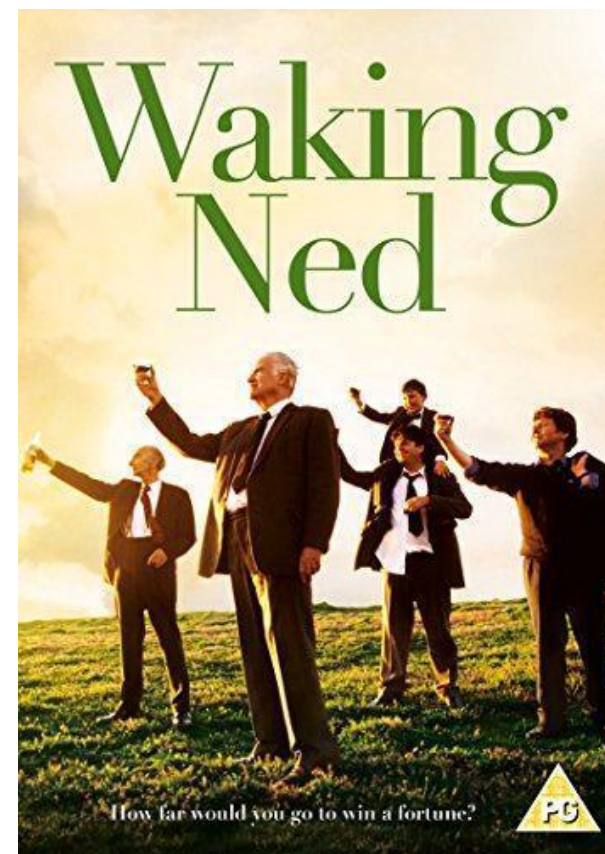

Cast: Ian Bannen, David Kelly, Fionnula Flanagan, Susan Lynch, James Nesbitt

Rating: PG (mild nudity, infrequent mild bad language)

Runtime: 1h 31m

Refreshments:

- Guinness – but only if you pre-order with your scheme manager!
- Chocolate Guinness Cake, tea and coffee

Richmond Charities Almshouses in Bloom

Hello all our wonderful green fingered gardeners.

Have you filled in your entry form yet?

Well just in case you have forgotten about our Almshouses in Bloom Competition we thought we would give you a gentle reminder to ask your Scheme Manager for an application form.

Everything is coming together nicely.

We have not one but two judges.

Firstly, we have Owen Fernandes and he's been working at Kew Gardens for 20 years.

Then we have Emma Halford (Trustee)

Judging will take place over the weekend of 13th and 14th July.

Now all we need now is YOU!!

Join us in the Chapel of St. Francis at 3.30pm on May 9th for,

An Afternoon of Creative Prayer.

A short initial act of worship will be followed by individually exploring a number of different 'prayer stations'. At each station there will be the opportunity to engage in prayer in different creative ways, using different senses. The afternoon will conclude with a short act of worship all together.

Creative Prayer is on Ascension Day, the first day of 'Thy Kingdom Come', a 10- day international, ecumenical festival of prayer leading up to Pentecost.
